Our privacy policies are concerned with the lawful collection of data and the rights of individuals, system users and data subjects.

2. Cookie Policy

Cookies are files saved on your phone, tablet, computer or other device when you visit a website.

They allow you to move around our websites and use the features. They are therefore needed to support the technical functionality of our websites and cannot be turned off.

We value your privacy. These cookies do not store any personal identification information.

Note:

In addition to cookies, this website uses a small piece of local storage in your browser to remember whether you have dismissed the cookie notice. This storage contains no personal data—only a simple “true” value—and is used solely to prevent the banner from reappearing on future visits. It remains in your browser until you delete your browsing data.

What type of cookies do Galea websites use?

Galea uses two types of cookies:

- Session cookies – These help with security and allow our website to remember you as you move between pages. They remember what you have done on previous pages so you do not have to re-enter information. Session cookies are deleted when you close your browser or log out.
- Short-term persistent cookies – The sid cookie is the only short-term persistent cookie we use. It keeps you logged in and maintains your browsing session for up to three days, unless you log out sooner, in which case it is deleted.

Galea does not use advertising or third-party cookies. We only use first-party cookies which are set by the website you are using.

How do I manage cookies or change my cookie settings?

Web browsers allow some control over cookies through the browser settings. You can use your browser settings to delete cookies that have already been set or to allow/block cookies. It is important to know that rejecting or blocking cookies will not delete any cookies that have already been saved to your device in the past. You can delete previously saved cookies via your browser settings. For more information about how to use your browser settings to clear your browser data or to manage cookies, check your browser ‘Help’ function

Please note, if you disable cookies by changing your browser settings, this may affect how the website functions and parts of our website may not work correctly.
